Women's Mini-Retreat

Do you ever find it hard to get away for a spiritual retreat designed just for women? No time? Too far away? Too expensive? And just before the start of the busy fall season we women need a boost. So come away for a quickie retreat. Take a deep breath. Spend a little bit of time with sisters, and get a spiritual top-up at the starting line. You'll be so glad you did.
