For more information or help in choosing a resource, you may email me at resourcecenter@wvpresbytery.org or give me a call. During this time of physical distancing, you may call or text my cell number: 304-481-8027. If I don't answer, please leave me a message and I will call you back.

The Resource Center of the Presbytery of West Virginia is YOUR Resource Center.

Yes, we are physically distanced, but we are as close as a phone call, a text message, a Zoom meeting or a FaceTime chat. My office may look different, but your Resource Center is still here to serve you as you serve the people of God for whom you care. All our resources are selected with you and the ministry of your congregation in mind, as well as your relationship with God and God's people. Come and see! Give me a call, or send me a message. I'll do the best I can to fulfill your resource needs. (Nellie)

We all love a video

Don't we? But we all need a break from watching cat videos. The Resource Center has made a couple videos that are informative and perhaps a little entertaining.

Our first Book Review video is about the CHILDREN OF GOD STORYBOOK BIBLE by Archbishop Desmond Tutu. Click HERE to watch the review video.

Our second book review is on WRITING TO GOD: 40 DAYS OF PRAYING WITH MY PEN by Rachel B. Hackenberg. (This one is perfect for these days spent in our homes.) To watch this video, click HERE.

Next time, our Book Review will be on the new book from Westminster John Knox Press, PART-TIME IS PLENTY: Thriving Without Full-Time Clergy by G. Jeffrey MacDonald.

To get the most up-to-date information from your Resource Center, be sure to “like” us on Facebook at WV Presbytery Resource Center.

Remember, we are only distanced physically. Socially, we are just a “click” or a phone call away.
