NOBODY CRIES WHEN WE DIE: God, Community, and Surviving to Adulthood

“For people of color living each day surrounded by violence, for whom survival is not a given, vocational discernment is more than ‘finding your purpose; it’s a matter of life and death. A story balancing the tension between pain and healing, Nobody Cries When We Die takes you to the places that make American society flinch, redefines what you are called to do with your life, and gives you strength to save lives and lead in your own community.” (from the book’s back cover by Chalice Press)

Patrick Reyes

“...a brilliant mix of theological reflection and biographical snippets to demonstrate how narrative can be used to discern vocation.” (Pamela Lightsey, Boston University School of Theology)

Patrick B. Reyes is currently the Director of Strategic Partnerships for Doctoral Initiatives at the Forum for Theological Exploration

THREE SIMPLE QUESTIONS TO HELP CHILDREN KNOW GOD

A SIX-WEEK STUDY FOR CHILDREN BY DAPHNA FLEGAL

Want a short-term class for children? This course could be used for Sunday school, summer Sunday school or a middle of the week class. As I read through the study, I think it could fairly easily be developed into a multi-generational class. The six lessons include:

Question 1 Who is God?

Weeks one & two: 1- God is Love; 2-Jesus Teaches us about God

Question 2 Who Am I?

Weeks three & four: 3-Made in God’s Image; 4-Beloved Child of God

Question 3 Who Are We Together

5-The Family of God; 6-Followers of Jesus
