

Festival of Faith Workshop Information and Application

Once again, we are pleased and excited to bring an inspirational day of keynote and workshops to the people of the Presbytery of West Virginia at the Festival of Faith 2019. Workshops developed by Presbytery committees, staff members and leaders are a key component to the success of the Festival of Faith.

As with last year, we will offer several workshop times – three slots for one-hour workshops or a two-hour time slot. Workshop proposals may be for one hour or two hours in length. You may also want to consider two or three one-hour workshops that, while connected, could also stand alone on a related topic.

We hope to offer workshops that mix both church “how to” classes with those that are entertaining and joyful for Presbyterians. The Planning Team encourages you to think about church professionals as well as the “people in the pew.” In order to prepare and distribute packets, we must have all workshop information turned in by November 15, 2018.

Brian McLaren will give the keynote address and will offer a workshop. He is an author, speaker, activist, and public theologian. A former college English teacher and pastor, he is a passionate advocate for “a new kind of Christianity” – just, generous, and working with people of all faiths for the common good. Brian works closely with the Center for Progressive Renewal/Convergence, the Wild Goose Festival and the Fair Food Program’s Faith Working Group.

A Workshop Application form is attached. They should be emailed to Susan Sharp Campbell at susan_sharp_campbell@hotmail.com or mailed to the presbytery office, Attn: Susan Sharp Campbell, 520 Second Ave., South Charleston, WV 25303. Remember, completed forms must be submitted by November 15, 2018. Contact Kari Preslar, Event Chair, with any questions (kari61@suddenlink.net, 304-541-7222).
