Family(think Church Family) Systems

Families and congregations are connected by many emotional systems. We speak of church as “the family of God” or the “family of faith,” as we worship, play and work together. This workshop will enable participants to understand a system, identify systems within their congregation, and address the impact of systems on anxiety, conflict and relationships in ways that lead a congregation to a healthier and effective life together.

Elaine Barnett is a Ruling Elder and Certified Christian Educator. Previously on Staff of Tampa Bay Presbytery, she is a consultant working with congregations in the areas of staff development, long range planning, conflict management, and understanding family systems. She is a member of First Presbyterian Church in Sarasota, Florida.

Registration deadline: Friday, October 13. Cost: $75, due with registration.

Note: There will be an assignment to be completed prior to this workshop.
