

Presbyterian Homes in WV

Did you know that the Presbyterian Church is affiliated with quite a number of housing facilities for older adults in West Virginia? Most are for the purpose of providing safe, well-cared-for housing for lower income older adults. We also have two family housing properties that we have been associated with for many years.

Is your congregation near one? Check the list below and get involved...it is easy!

Things congregations can do to support our homes:

1. Pray for the staff and residents. For good relationships, good health, peaceful neighbors and solid community support.
2. Volunteer to lead a class, play games, host a monthly birthday bash or seasonal party, teach yoga, answer phones, do bulletin boards, organize closets, garden or whatever else you love to do and share.
3. Donate to an emergency fund at the Presbytery of WV to assist residents with the transition into good housing, to cover a part of the deposit or to pay for emergency, one-time needs that occasionally arise.
4. Be a member of the Presbyterian Housing Foundation Board of WV, Inc. and make sure that our homes are well run and a blessing for years to come.
