

Emanuel Synagogue Sisterhood Presents:

Karen Goen talks Mah Jongg

Thursday, April 22 at 7:30 PM on Zoom

Karen will speak about the psychological benefits of Mah Jongg history and etiquette, as well as Bubbe's wisdom and strategy for the new 2021 card. She will speak and then take questions.

Karen's first book, Searching for Bubbe Fischer, gave her the opportunity to speak at JCC, Sisterhood and Hadassah events all over the United States. She subsequently wrote two Mah Jongg Table Talk Tales, Small World and Take Two, both novels about mothers, daughters, and unexpected friendships. She refers to them as "mah jongg rom coms." Karen's books can be ordered at a discount from her (bubbefischer@gmail.com) or on Amazon in print and Kindle versions.

Karen is a Life Member of NCJW and Hadassah. She and her husband have been married for 30 years and live in Morris County, New Jersey, and have two adult children.

RSVP to Debbie Mehlman at debbiemehlman@yahoo.com with your email address. Zoom links will be emailed shortly before the program by Fern Cohen.
