

Movie-Lovers: Join a Cine-gogue Group

Two Emanuel Cine-gogue groups have formed during Covid, allowing movie fans to watch movies with a Jewish or Israel theme and then discuss the movies in zoom meetings.

One group formed by invitation from friends. The other formed by people responding to an e-blast, creating new connections among Emanuel members. It has been a great way to foster community and inspire lively conversations during this strange year when in-person gatherings are rare.

All movies are available on popular streaming services. Some already watched and discussed are: “Crossing Delancey”; “A Serious Man”; “The Red Sea Diving Resort”; “Outback Rabbis”; “Thou Shalt Not Hate” (from the recent Hartford Jewish Film Festival).

Enjoy these movies and consider forming your own group! For more information, contact Sharone Kornman, sgkornman@gmail.com
