

The Emanuel Synagogue Receives $5000 Grant from the Connecticut Natural Gas Company

Support Made Available under Connecticut's Neighborhood Assistance Act Tax Credit Program

December 14, 2021

The Emanuel Synagogue has received $5,000 (Five thousand dollars and 00/100) award from the Connecticut Gas Company under the provisions of the State of Connecticut Neighborhood Assistance Act (NAA) Tax Credit Program, as administered by the Department of Revenue services.

Since 2010, United Illuminating (UI), Southern Connecticut Gas (SCG) and Connecticut Natural Gas (CNG) — all subsidiaries of AVANGRID, Inc. — has awarded $4.2 million in grants through the NAA Program. The program offers a corporate tax credit to encourage businesses to provide financial support to qualified local nonprofit organizations improve energy efficiency and reduce their energy costs.

The Emanuel has been awarded these funds for needed boiler repairs.

The Emanuel Synagogue is a Conservative congregation in West Hartford CT, which has served the Jewish population of Greater Hartford for over 100 years.