

The Student of Color Leadership Summit will be a two-day conference that allows students, faculty, and staff to unite for two days of educational sessions and dialogue surrounding the topics of leadership and diversity.

Faculty, Staff, and graduate students are encouraged to propose a breakout session presentation that will be presented Friday and Saturday, February 3rd and 4th. Each breakout session will have a 30-50-minute window for the presentation. Activities and discussion are encouraged to make an interactive experience for attendees.
