

Emerging Leaders/ Students Session: "Shifting the Decision Set"

Scott Mitchell, Director of Talent Acquisition for Azzur Group presents Strategies for emerging leaders to build a strong professional toolkit that will lead them down the career path they desire.

Mitchell oversees Azzur's national Talent Acquisition Team and partners with organizational leadership to enhance the development of a talent pipeline which is essential to Azzur's growth.

He brings nearly two decades of unique experience to Azzur Group, specializing in pharmaceutical and life sciences, manufacturing and distribution, and professional services. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from Central Connecticut State University and is currently completing his Human Resource Management certification from Villanova University.