

Last chance for members to use their 50% off discount on SupplierLink Saskatchewan!

Offer expires December 31, 2021

By now members should be aware of the ECAS-SupplierLink Saskatchewan partnership.

Not only does ECAS have a profile on SupplierLink, allowing members to show their affiliation and stand apart from other electrical contractors on the system, but we've also secured a one-time discount for members' first year (accessible here:

ECAS is proud to support this homegrown, industry-driven, automated vendor engagement system.

"SupplierLink is the construction industry's answer to sourcing exactly the right contractors for any project, right down to specific trade scopes and project experience. We are so pleased to provide ECAS members with an opportunity to have the edge on their competitors in this innovative system." – Ken Meredith, Executive Director, ECAS.

Showcase your skill sets, project experience, qualifications, safety records, and more.
