

Resilient Amador

A Community Gathering

Let's start the conversation...

Tuesday, October 9 • 5:00pm - 7:00pm
975 Broadway, Jackson

Trauma affects us all - mentally, physically, personally and also as a community. It's time to come together and build on the strengths of this small but mighty county to address the challenges that we still face. Working together we can create a trauma-informed community through education, prevention, support, and advocacy.

Lets transform systems, individuals, families, and businesses to integrate trauma-informed and resilience-building practices throughout our work, relationships, and personal lives.

Join us for a community meal and a very important conversation about how together we can heal trauma and build resilience in Amador County.
