

Above Average Parenting: A Faith-Based Course for K–12 Parents

Last fall, we gathered for the Mustang Trail Talk, and the feedback was clear: you valued the community, the learning, and (let's be honest) the childcare. This semester, we're building on that momentum and going deeper.

In partnership with King of Kings Northwest, we are pleased to offer a four-week course:

Above Average Parenting: Understanding and Applying God-Given Principles of Learning, Motivation, and Behavior

When: Wednesdays, February 25 – March 18

Time: 6:30 – 7:45 pm

Where: Concordia Lutheran Schools of Omaha Campus (15656 Fort Street)

Childcare provided.

Meet Your Guide: Dr. Tim Riley

Dr. Tim Riley is a psychologist and former professor of pediatrics at the University of Nebraska Medical Center, where he specialized in behavioral pediatrics. He has worked with hundreds of families, taught numerous college courses, and presented to parents, medical professionals, and educators on topics related to parenting and behavioral health.

Dr. Riley is the author of two books: First the Broccoli, Then the Ice Cream: Tried and True Positive Parenting Strategies for Teaching, Motivation, and Discipline and How to Live an Unstuck Life: Subdue Stress, Unwind Anxiety, and Quiet Your Busy Brain.

He and his wife, Deb, have been members of King of Kings for more than 25 years. They are blessed with three adult children and an ever-growing group of grandchildren.
