SEIZE THE OPPORTUNITY

FOR MAJOR AND PLANNED GIFT FUNDRAISERS

COSTA MESA, CALIFORNIA - CINCINNATI/COVINGTON, KENTUCKY

INSTITUTE FOR CHARITABLE GIVING

Philanthropy is critical— perhaps more than ever before to the vision you have for your organization and those you serve. Major and planned gifts are the lifeblood of your institution. We are convinced your donors will rally around your plans and bring resolve, conviction, and commitment if properly articulated and approached.

So many of you we have spoken to have confirmed that your current fundraising efforts have resulted in an increase to your annual or major gift programs in unprecedented ways.

Your donors are asking the question: How can I help? It is our responsibility as leaders to provide the funding priorities that will serve the greatest

“I loved learning about Moves Management. That structure doesn’t exist yet in our organization— something that is quantifiable, that has questions to ask yourself. A means through which you can get your thought process straight before you approach your donor.”

– Allison Geraci

Austin Disaster Relief Network

“This was life changing for me. I know that these are principles and practices I will use for the rest of my career. I am so grateful that I was able to come to Seize the Opportunity.”

– Melanie Davis

Prioritizing High-Impact Strategies to Secure Your Greatest Success

Is there a good time for your organization to raise money? Yes. When you are ready. Not one day before. These challenging times may necessitate a modified and targeted approach included in a special gift initiative, a mini-campaign or a capital campaign.

Our program remains focused on major gift strategies. It will reflect the unique challenges organizations faced last year, its impact, and how to strategically plan for the future. We are including as much time as possible, for small group interaction, panel discussions, and one-on-one opportunities with our faculty members. Our purpose is to bring additional depth, understanding, and recommendations for your organization.

ParkBenching

Throughout the day, at every break, faculty will be available to you to meet one-on-one to discuss any question you may have. We call this ParkBenching! There's limited registration to ensure extensive interaction and provide maximum personal attention.

Our commitment is to work with you during these difficult times. We understand what your organization is going through. Together we will work through the challenges we are facing. Between today and when we are together, we will have a clearer understanding of what we must all do to reach our greatest potential.

“What makes fundraising so exciting is that you are compelled to stretch your mental abilities to the limit. Each institution is unique and you have the opportunity to creatively apply your knowledge in seeking solutions to abstract, complex, but nonetheless real and important situations. The permutations and opportunities are limited only by your own abilities.”

– William Sturtevant

Who Should Attend

- All staff, board members, volunteers involved in fundraising.
- Organizations that can benefit from an infusion of gift income.
- Newcomers to the field, and those who have been at it for awhile.
- Fundraisers who want to grow professionally.
- Those who would like to have their professional batteries recharged.
- Those who want to become more effective and successful at fundraising.
- Those who choose to be the best they can be.

“Thank you for the remarkable panel of presenters who took the time to share their expertise with us. Every segment of this conference was so powerful, so informative and inspirational.”

– Erin Mintmier

United Service Organizations (USO)

“I expected this to be game changing and that’s a high expectation. I learned incredible procedures. Procedures to take something that sometimes can be intuitive and to develop systems and procedures that will move me forward in my development career. My very favorite thing about this has been meeting other women who have offered to be mentors and to share their stories.”

– Ashley McCue
