$1,000 and $250 Central Infusion Alliance (CIA) Medical Scholarship, D: June 1, 2019

Selected criteria:

“To apply for our scholarship, tell a story of how a healthcare worker has made a difference in your life or the life of someone near and dear to your heart. This person does not have to be a direct family member, but must be factually-based, and meaningful to you personally.

AWARDS

We are proud to announce that ten scholarships will be awarded in 2019 as follows: three $1000 awards and seven $250 awards.

The winning submission will be chosen based on several factors, including succinctness, word choice, flow, and the ability to tell an engaging story. This is not a grammar competition, nor a creative writing challenge.

1. Essays will be judged on story presentation, mechanics and organization.
2. Profanity is allowed, but may be redacted if selected for publishing.
3. Must be willing to have your essay published on our blog.

Essay Requirements:

1. Address the topic of how a health care worker has made a difference in your life or the life of someone you know.
2. Length must be greater than 1000 and less than 3000 words.
3. Essay will be judged on story presentation, mechanics and organization.
4. Profanity is allowed, but maybe redacted if selected for publishing.
5. Must be willing to have your essay published on our blog.

The winner will be contacted on or before August 1, 2019 by phone and/or email. Funds will be paid directly to the financial aid office of your school.”

SCHOLARSHIP

<https://www.coloradolaw.net/scholarship/>

$2,000 Bachus & Schanker, LLC Scholarship, Deadline for Spring semester: July 30, 2019; Deadline for Fall semester: Nov 30, 2019

Selected criteria from website: “Understanding the importance of a quality education, Bachus & Schanker, LLC created a scholarship meant to enable students to better focus on their intellectual development and career goals.

Students have the opportunity to apply for one of the $2000 semiannual scholarships to be paid toward tuition for the upcoming semester.

Each student must write an essay about his or her opinion(s) on the importance and efficacy of the 7th Amendment. Students are encouraged to think critically about the right to trial by a jury, and other elements of the Amendment, and it how affects their lives.

How to Apply

Eligible Students Will: Write an essay of no fewer than 800 words about your opinion on the importance and efficacy of the 7th Amendment and how it affects your life. Consideration for the entirety of the Amendment (rather than the well-known nutshell explanation of the right to trial by jury) is encouraged.

Email their essay as a .doc or .pdf attachment to scholarship@coloradolaw.net.

Who Can Apply

Any high school senior accepted to attend a four-year university by the time of the award, or full-time student attending a four-year university in the United States who carries a 3.0 cumulative GPA may apply.

Selection Process and Notification

The Bachus & Schanker, LLC Scholarship Committee will review each application and notify the winning student of their award by email.”

SKIP THE ADS on these webpages! (Some of the ads are legitimate, but sadly I can't vouch for them all. Avoid the single mom or single dad scholarships—I and a few other students have received calls, and some of the operators are not scrupulous, trying to pressure students in pursuing degrees at for-profit colleges and to take on heavy student loans.)

Grants to Individuals Online database

There is a little known resource called Grants to Individual Online database, accessible to students and others through Funding Information Network Locations.

If you happen to be in Nashville, TN, this summer, then the Nashville Public Library at 615 Church St, Nashville, Tennessee 37219, Phone: (615) 862-5800 is one of those locations.
