

DATE TBA SOON Late August

A large cardboard box is overflowing with a variety of school supplies. Visible items include several spiral-bound notebooks in red, blue, and green. There are multiple packages of pens and pencils, including a pack of 12 colored pencils and a pack of 24 crayons. A white glue bottle with a red cap, a pair of blue-handled scissors, and a yellow ruler are prominently displayed in the foreground. Other items include a green pencil sharpener, a pink eraser, and a small blue glue stick. The supplies are packed closely together, creating a colorful and abundant display.
