

Red Cliff Tribal Elder Snow Plow Application

2025-2026 Plowing Season

Elders 62 and Older: No Cost

Available to: Elders 62 and older living within the Red Cliff Reservation Boundaries.

Details:

1. All driveways must be clear so there is enough room to push snow, crew cannot back blade any driveways.
2. Culverts, water curb stops, sewer clean outs, and anything else you may not want plowed over must be staked at a visible height to the driver. (at least five feet high)
3. Red Cliff Tribal Plowing does not shovel walkways, stairs, or porches.
4. If possible, vehicles should be moved out of the way as plowing begins at your home to ensure driveway can be cleared all at once.
5. Red Cliff Tribal Plowing will open the driveway to allow one car to pass safely; we will not be opening yards and/or extensive turnarounds.
6. The Red Cliff Tribe and Red Cliff Tribal Plowing will not be held responsible for damage that may occur while plowing.
7. Red Cliff Tribal Plowing will begin plowing when snow accumulations have hit 3 inches or more for each snow fall. Emergency Facilities and Tribal buildings take priority before any driveways are started.

Any questions or comments please contact the Public Works Department 715-779-3700 ext. 4401 or email brenda.hebert@redcliff-nsn.gov.

Please return completed form to the Tribal Administration Building (88455 Pike Rd) or to the Elderly Department (New Housing Road). Completed forms can also be emailed to brenda.hebert@redcliff-nsn.gov.
