

PWR and UUCSJ Goldmine Justice Journey 2019

Regional Goldmine Justice Journey for Youth and Adults next summer!

- Do you have a passion for environmental justice?
- Did you read the UN's Climate Report? Our Earth needs action now!
- Have you wanted to collaborate with grassroots organizations to create a lasting partnership in solidarity with local communities?
- Ever wondered what it would be like to make a real difference whilst also learning hands-on skills and concepts?

Join us for a leadership, immersion experience focusing on environmental sustainability through service, learning, and spiritual practice designed to be reflective and to sustain future justice work. We'll be partnering with Day One, an environmental advocacy group based in Pasadena.

Evening of Tuesday, June 25th - Afternoon of Saturday, June 29th, 2019 Throop Unitarian Universalist Church 300 S. Los Robles Ave. Pasadena, CA 91101

You are invited! 25 multigenerational participants - Youth (rising 9th - rising 12th graders), and adults 25+. Cost is $450.00 per person for 5 days. All meals, lodging at the church, local transportation (air and ground transportation to the Throop Church is not included). Scholarships are available here. No one with interest will miss this event.

The Pacific Western Region and UU College of Social Justice Goldmine Justice Journey provides an opportunity to:

- Gain a deeper understanding of social justice issues and strategies for creating change
- Reflect on questions of identity, power and privilege, the intersections of spirituality and activism, and the ways that you are called to work for justice in the world
- Build community with other youth who are passionate about making a positive impact
- Learn from grassroots community organizations through hands-on engagement
- Prepare to return home inspired and motivated to take action in your community
- In addition, the group will engage in centering practices as a way to build a lifelong foundation for justice work and compassionate understanding.
