

Thank you!

We collected over 350 books last week to be distributed to the Summer Reading Camp to be held at Socastee Elementary for kids who need extra help with reading. Books are given to the Shepherd's Table in Conway for their summer food program for families, as well.

