

We know that contributing to the well-being of others makes us feel good. For many years, our congregation has supported organizations locally as well as mission work beyond South Carolina. Whether it's clothing, food, time, or money, contributing helps us to live better lives! What are some of the ways that you can have a positive impact on others?

For more information on Stephen Ministry, contact Mandy Carriker at 843.651.5099