

Are you a caregiver for someone diagnosed with Batten - CLN5?

Now What, an independent health research company, is seeking to speak with parents who are currently caring for someone with Batten type CLN5 in order to better understand the experience from the family perspective.

Eligible participants will be asked to complete a one-hour phone (or video) interview to discuss their experiences as a caregiver, the impact of the condition and its symptoms for the child, family, and their own daily life.

All information collected is confidential and will be used collectively to better understand lives of children and families living with CLN5.

If you are a caretaker of someone diagnosed with CLN5, and are interested, you may be eligible to participate in this interview.

Enrolled participants will receive a $250 gift card for their time.
