

President's Greeting

Blasting Off and Ready to Serve!

Sorors, let's, please continue to send love and prayers to our President, Soror Twyla Winters-Jenkins. She is home resting and recuperating. Let us allow her some uninterrupted time off the Delta clock as she recovers. Please continue to contact Soror Mia Ransom Harris, 1st Vice President in her absence.

In Service and Sisterhood,
Mia Ransom-Harris
 Chapter 1st Vice-President

Chaplain's Corner

As women of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, we are busy. We are so many things to so many people. At times it can seem impossible to cope, to manage...to balance. But have no fear God offers a solution. If we "seek first the Kingdom of God and HIS way of doing things" everything we need (Including peace and balance) will be added to us. Matthew 6:33.

It might not make any sense to give God his time when we have so many obligations, deadlines, and tasks. However, if we dedicate our time to Him, he will help us: carry the load; show up fully; and give what's needed. If we seek him first, we will be better women, mothers, wives, sisters, friends, daughters, Sorors...Women of Delta Sigma Theta.

Soror Joslyn R. Sandifer, Esq.

*Thank you to those who dined and socialized with us in September!
It was a joy to be back in person.*

The East St. Louis Alumnae Chapter is pleased to launch the ESLAC LEADership Academy including a new Leadership Development Program, the LEAD Mentoring Program developed by the National Leadership Academy, and Internal Development opportunities for committee chairpersons, co-chairpersons, committee members and chapter members.

Leadership Development Program

Mission

Engage and inspire members to enhance their innate abilities to institute a leadership succession plan for the East St. Louis Alumnae Chapter. This creates a robust pipeline of leaders through a comprehensive mentor and development program designed to drive continuity and elevation of the chapter for greater impact to our membership and communities.

Vision

Design and execute an efficient program that leverages proficiencies, supports development, and shapes individual traits and skills needed to be successful and lead in the sororal landscape.

Program Model & Objectives

Understand the Culture	Adapt & Transform	Thrive
Provide a deep-dive into Delta Sigma Theta's (ESLAC) Culture, Leadership Structure, the overall importance of culture in an organizational environment and a member's role in culture.	Assist participants in understanding their professional and leadership fit as they navigate the best way to adapt, transform and live in the Sorority's and Chapter's cultures.	Prepare and position participants to flourish in providing them with strategies and tools for success to achieve their sororal leadership aspirations.
