

SUMMER WORKSHOP

Supporting Neurodiverse Learners in a General Education Setting

Calling all preschool and elementary teachers:

- Do you have students with diagnosed and undiagnosed neurodiversity in your classroom?
- Are you looking for strategies to better support ALL of your students?

Join us for a three-day summer workshop at Spruce Street School where we share concrete, hands-on strategies to support neurodiverse learners at the start of the school year.

Developed and led by

Erin Benzikry
Co-owner and Clinical
Director of STEPS

Daron Henry
Master teacher at
Spruce Street School

based on over a decade of mutually-beneficial collaboration

SUCCESS THROUGH EDUCATION, PLAY & SUPPORT

Founded and operated by Special Educators and Board-Certified Behavior Analysts (BCBAs), STEPS provides behavioral and social-emotional support for children, families, and schools within the Seattle area.

PROGRAM DETAILS AND REGISTRATION

DATES AND SCHEDULE

July 28–30, 8:30am–2:30pm

LOCATION

Spruce Street School
914 Virginia Street, Seattle, WA 98101

FEES

$600 total for all three days

This cost includes:

- Access to resources provided throughout the training and workshop
- Lunch provided daily

CLOCK HOURS

Clock hours are offered for an additional fee.

Register by July 20 by scanning
the QR code or visiting:
bit.ly/sss-steps-workshop

Spruce Street School has served a broad, neurodiverse population of students in a multi-age setting focused on strong academics and social-emotional learning for over 40 years. Teachers bring an expertise of success with all learners in a general education program.