

Senior Community Meeting
Wednesday, October 24th 1pm
At the Springfield Hobby Club
309 Chestnut Street, Springfield

Concerned about getting to the new Raymond A. Jordan Senior Center?

Join us to discuss transportation barriers getting to the new senior center in Blunt Park.

Together we will...

- Brainstorm solutions for getting to the new senior center.
- Seek affordable and accessible transportation options.
- Ensure our voices are heard and considered in the decision-making process.

Don't Just Take it, Take Charge!

For more information, contact:
LiveWell Springfield Age Friendly City Project and Greater Springfield MSAC Chapter at 413-794-2546 or
tcarpenter@masssenioraction.org

Mass Senior Action Council (MSAC) is a membership organization run by Senior Activist dedicated to social and economic justice for all. We seek not only to win on issues, but to organize in ways that help people learn skills, develop new relationships, and build community. Members are celebrating 36 years of making positive change in their community.