

Name:	Malcolm Mayo
Title:	Director of Supplier Development, Dallas County Community College District (Previous) Sr. Business Advisor, Goldman Sachs 10K Small Business Program
Bio Summary:	Malcolm Mayo and his immediate family relocated to Dallas, TX from Louisville, KY 25 years ago. He has a wife and 2 kids (girls) and enjoys reading, traveling, sports and spending time with his family and friends when he has an opportunity to. After all this time he is still adjusting to the Texas heat. Malcolm has been with Dallas College since 2018 and started as a Sr. Business Advisor with the Goldman Sachs 10K Small Business Program. In February of 2020 he started in his current role as Director of supller Development. Malcolm has 20+ years of finance, management and operations experience across the food service, food distribution, manufacturing, healthcare, education and retail industries. It was the start of his career in fast food that he recognized that his passion for people development, finance and operations would be his areas of focus going forward. He spent seven years at Walmart headquarters as a Director of Merchandise Financial Planning where he was responsible for leading two $5 billion business units and was able to use this experience to broaden his expertise in merchandising, financial analysis, process improvement, logistics and cost savings. Malcolm is passionate about supporting the small business community. In his spare time, he assists small business owners with creating a budget and providing financial analysis in order to help them make better business decisions and potentially become more profitable. He is active in the community serving as the President of the Dad's Club at his daughter's school, PTA member and Governance Chair at his church. MBA, Management and Finance, Keller Graduate School of Management Bachelor of Science, Business Administration, Morris Brown College