Monday Workshops

On Monday, you will have the option to attend workshops at 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. Room check-in will be available after the workshops.

A - "Better Balance" 2 p.m.

Participants will learn innovative strategies to improve balance and prevent falls.

B - "Bible Study" 2 & 4 p.m.

Secure in God's Promises: Our hope is secure, anchored in God. Where is your security? Is this what you are looking for?

C - "Grace of Our Hymns" 2 & 4 p.m.

Enjoy singing some of the hymns of the Methodist people and looking briefly at the history of music in our worship and theology.

D - "Healing Oils of the Bible" 4 p.m.

Experience essential oils that were used in biblical times for health and healing and learn the history of God's healing tools.

E - "Who gets the Locket?" 2 & 4 p.m.

With a little humor, personal stories and practical advice, this workshop focuses on wills, end of life issues and financial planning. Attendees will receive a free copy of the book, Provide & Protect.

Tuesday 2:00 p.m.

E - "Playing Hand Chimes"

Learn to play hand chimes to enhance worship with easy color-coded system. Then play at Tuesday's closing worship service.

F - "Healthy Living"

Eating a well-balanced diet is an important part of staying healthy. It can help you maintain a healthy weight, stay energized, and get the nutrients your body needs. Limited space.

We all have been richly blessed! Join us at Jubilation 2018 as we explore ways we can anchor our souls. The Rev. Kim Goddard will lead us in our general sessions as we explore ways that we can accomplish this. We will bless those less fortunate in the Holston Conference area by receiving an offering for Habitat for Humanity.

General Sessions and Worship Leader

Rev. Kim Goddard

*Holston Conference UMC
District Superintendent, Wytheville District*

The Rev. Kim Goddard served as senior pastor at Mafair UMC in Kingsport, TN, for eight years. She is a native of Giles County, VA, and has a master of divinity degree from Duke Divinity School.

Monday Night Anchor Your Soul

Rev. Mike Sluder

The Rev. Mike Sluder, a native of Gray, TN, is an ordained United Methodist minister. Mike has served churches in the United Methodist Church for 29 years. He is currently the Holston Director of Connectional Ministries.

Tuesday Night Jonesborough Novelty Band

Since 1992, The Jonesborough Novelty Band has entertained visitors to Tennessee's Oldest Town at festivals, schools, churches—any place where folks are having a good time. The "guys who love to sing" are Mark Calliham and Terry Countermine. You may be asked to join in with a kazoo, a slide whistle, or a nose flute! Participation is their specialty.
