

Vrakas S.C.
445 South Moorland Road, Suite 400
Brookfield, Wisconsin 53005-4254

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 2, 2024

Vrakas Welcomes New Tax Principal

Brookfield, WI – The public accounting and business advisory firm, Vrakas CPAs + Advisors is pleased to announce the addition of Emily Sladky to the tax department.

Emily joins Vrakas with over 15 years of experience in tax consulting and compliance services. At Vrakas, Emily will specialize in serving closely held businesses and their owners, including implementing tax planning strategies, and contributing to the professional development of the firm's tax department with a strong focus on the construction and manufacturing industries.

"Vrakas is excited to welcome Emily to the tax department," says President and Managing Shareholder, Brad Weckwerth. "Emily's expertise and fresh perspective will undoubtedly enhance our tax team's capabilities, both internally and externally. This is an exciting addition to our tax department; welcome to Team Vrakas, Emily!"

To learn more about our tax professionals and services, visit vrakascpas.com.

Vrakas CPAs + Advisors has been providing certified public accounting and business advisory services since 1971. With nearly 100 professionals, our experience, size and resources enable us to provide services in a variety of areas including assurance, tax and business consulting. We specialize in working with privately held businesses and their owners in a variety of industries including construction, dealerships, manufacturing/distribution, professional services, and real estate. We also have extensive experience working with private equity and ESOP-owned companies. For more information, please visit us at vrakascpas.com or contact Marketing Coordinator, Madison Naumann at mnaumann@vrakascpas.com.