

Member Spotlight of the Month

Ann Smith

Ann Smith joined DWC in 2017 after accepting an invitation from Janet Slater, also a Chi Omega alumni and bridge player. She is a very dedicated Club member and served on the following committees: Refreshments, Scholarship, and Home Tour committees. Greeting our guests at the DWC annual Home Tour is one of Ann's favorite Club activities and she previously served as a Head Hostess. Ann earned a BA in Journalism from LSU and worked for the Bell System for 38 years as an interviewer and school recruiter. She was a manager in the Business Department and Trainer and Course Developer in the Yellow Pages. Ann is active in her community as she attends Holy Innocents' Episcopal Church where she completed a four-year course in Education for Ministry. In addition, she participates in the Intercessory Prayer Group. She is a member of three bridge groups and two book clubs. Since 1995 Ann has done watercolor painting.
