Diane Norris

Diane Norris joined DWC in 1993 and has held many leadership positions at the club, district, and state levels. She has served as DWC President several times, most recently in 2023. Currently Diane serves as the Health and Wellness Co-Chairman, Education & Libraries Co-Chairman and has a key role on the Home Tour Committee. In addition, Diane is Co-Chairman of Tallulah Falls Committee and also serves on the Board of Directors of Tallulah Falls School. Diane joined Maria Barnhart and Ida Dorvee as the three-member team in the development of the Evening Division of DWC in 2022.

For over 33 years Diane has demonstrated a commitment and dedication to the GFWC Dunwoody Woman's Club. She is always ready to help where she is needed.

Diane has an adult daughter, Jessica, son-in-law Steve, and two wonderful grandchildren: Ryan is a junior at Oglethorpe University, and Madeline is a sophomore at Samford University. The great news is Jessica and family live in the Atlanta area. Diane's bestie is Prissy, her sweet dog, that she adopted in 2020.

Diane loves visiting her extended family in Virginia and Maryland during holidays and in the summer. And she thoroughly enjoys traveling in her self-driving Tesla! Diane is a member of Roswell Presbyterian Church and has served in a number of leadership positions with Presbyterian Women.
