

CBD Beer?

It's the newest craze! Nationwide CBD is popping up everywhere, even the Navy has acknowledged its benefits! From hipsters to grandmas, everybody is interested! One new trend is CBD infused beverages, and Brewmasters are getting creative with it! Several breweries nationwide are creating custom brews around the Cannabinoid CBD. What is CBD? Well, CBD has some amazing attributes. For starters it is a very strong anti inflammatory, it's used in a variety of skin creams, tinctures, pet health, and much, much more. World wide CBD is being used for its beneficial properties and it's now going mainstream after years of senseless prohibition.
