

Real Estate Attorney

Castle Law, Joliet, IL | Full-Time

Salary: $85,000 - $100,000 plus eligibility for performance based compensation.

Castle Law is seeking an enthusiastic, motivated attorney with 0–4 years of experience and a genuine passion for real estate. If you enjoy solving problems, building relationships, and helping clients navigate important transactions, we want to hear from you.

This is an opportunity to gain hands-on experience in a busy real estate practice, work alongside experienced attorneys and support staff, and take an active role in moving transactions from contract to closing.

What You'll Do

- Represent buyers and sellers in residential real estate transactions.
- Review and negotiate contracts, attorney review correspondence, and inspection issues.
- Review title commitments, resolve title issues, and prepare closing documents.
- Communicate with clients, real estate agents, lenders, and title companies.
- Attend closings and help resolve issues that arise throughout the transaction.
- Collaborate with paralegals and fellow attorneys to keep files organized and on track.

Who We're Looking For

- An attorney licensed to practice in Illinois.
- Preferably 0–4 years of legal experience. New attorneys with a strong interest in real estate are encouraged to apply.
- An energetic, proactive professional who takes ownership and follows through.
- A clear communicator with strong organizational skills and attention to detail.
- Someone who enjoys working with people and can manage competing deadlines.
- A team player who brings solutions, asks thoughtful questions, and is eager to learn.

Why Castle Law?

Build your real estate career through meaningful client contact, practical experience, and exposure to a wide range of transactions. We value initiative, accountability, teamwork, and a commitment to excellent client service.

Benefits:

- Opportunity to work with one of the highest-volume real estate practices in Illinois
