Foundations of Culturally Responsive Evaluation, Led by evaluators from UW-Madison and the Serve WI program staff, we will cover general topics such as: Evaluation Frameworks, Evaluation Planning and Design, Data Collection, Data Analysis, and Dissemination. We also will cover topics specific to evidence base and evaluation within CNCS application requirements.

New Opportunity! UW-Madison Certificate in Culturally Responsive Program Evaluation
Starting in Summer 2018 the University of Wisconsin-Madison will be offering a non-credit professional development certificate in Culturally Responsive Evaluation. The certificate will take approximately 12 months to complete and is a mix of two in-person workshops on the UW-Madison campus, online sessions, and an applied project. It is a good fit for program directors, managers or educators in non-profit and government organizations who want to build their evaluation skills. Please contact Kim Kile for more information about the Certificate program: kimberly.kile@wisc.edu.

RSVP
Please let us know if you will be coming by August 3, 2018! We want to make sure we have enough resources for everyone, so each individual who is planning on attending is asked to submit a RSVP via this link: https://goo.gl/forms/wCBAB2kIZdncApwU2
You need to RSVP by July 13, 2018, if you need lodging.
