Twenty years at the forefront of entrepreneurship, executive leadership, inspiration, innovation, and philanthropy, you will find Chris Carothers.

Mr. Carothers has more than twenty-eight years of experience supporting client's information technology needs with global enterprise resource planning (ERP) solutions such as Oracle, SAP, PeopleSoft, and NetSuite. His expertise encompasses sound financial practices and managing IT capital budgets of $5M+.

He is a native of St. Louis, Missouri and graduated high school from the prestigious St. Louis Country Day School in 1987. Mr. Carothers' basketball skills earned him a full scholarship to Rider University in New Jersey where he navigated an outstanding basketball career. In 2001, he was inducted into the St Louis Country Day's Basketball Hall of Fame. Mr. Carothers is a graduate of Rider University and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Information Systems and Master's in Business Administration. He is a Certified Project Management Professional (PMP).

His illustrious career has afforded him the opportunity to work with fortune 500 companies such as Bristol-Myers Squibb, J.M. Huber Corporation, S&P Global, Madison Square Garden, AT&T, Hunter Boots, Inc. and McGraw Hill Financial. With laser focus on the technology industry, Mr. Carothers, and a trusted colleague Co-Founded Millennium Consulting Solutions in 1999 employing 15 professional consultants.

In 2007, Mr. Carothers founded FCC Consulting Services, LLC an information technology consulting and professional services firm that supports the needs of the financial, telecommunications, healthcare, manufacturing, and government markets. FCC Consulting, Services is the recipient of the 2018 New Jersey Small Business Development Center Award and 2008 Metropolitan Trenton African American Chamber of Commerce Small Business of the Year Award.

Mr. Carothers was unanimously elected to serve on the Board of Trustees for Rider University as the youngest member ever to be selected. He was then asked to serve on the Board of Trustees as Chairman for the Student Affairs Committee and Vice Chairman of the Business Affairs Committee. As an advocate of youth empowerment, positive development and a passion for basketball, Mr. Carothers devoted 25 years of volunteer service to coach youth basketball. He is a Deacon of Shiloh Baptist Church and serves as the Capital Campaign Co-Chair Fundraiser for the $6M Woodson Family Life Center. His guest speaking appearances have taken him to high schools during career day and Rider University's Athletes regarding "Life After College Sports".

He was married to his late wife, Carletta E. Carothers, and is the proud father of two wonderful children, John Christopher Carothers 29, and Nicole Victoria Carothers, 23. Mr. Carothers currently resides in Burlington County and is recognized by others as an inspiration, exemplifying true leadership that continues to develop in leaps and bounds!