From the Director...

Dear Friends, Supporters and those Curious and wondering about Marywood,

Welcome to our 2022 - 2023, November - February, retreat and program guide! You will note there are some "oldies and goodies" offered along with some new programs and guest presenters. It seems as we near the end of a year, we often review highlights of that year, and mark down those things we just didn't get around to doing or experiencing. It might be time to gift yourself or someone you love with attendance at a particular program or some time apart for a retreat.

A retreat at Marywood can be designed for you personally, either a day, a week or a month, as well as one that is scheduled or being led for a group. Once one experiences time with the Holy, God, Spirit, Jesus, or one's namesake saint, it is a blessed experience, one difficult to put into words.

Our annual church secretary/bookkeepers retreat day is being offered after all the holiday extras this year. Don't forget to reserve a place and mark your calendars!

Spiritual Direction is another of our programs. This experience allows a person to share their journey with God or to begin to develop a relationship with the Holy One/s. Those who experience spiritual direction find it a very positive and wonderful addition to their lives. At Marywood we have four trained and certified spiritual directors who received their education from different schools. Give us a call to learn more about this program/offering. Check page 3 in your last issue of Root & Ripples for more about this offering.

"May God bless you that you remember we are all called to God's redemptive work of love and healing in God's place, in and through God's name in God's Spirit, continually creating and breathing new life and grace into everything and everyone we touch." Franciscan Missionary Society

Have a Happy, Holy and Merry Christmas and may your 2023 be filled with many blessings and pleasant surprises.

Feeling anxious or depressed? You aren't alone. Psychologists report that anxiety and depression are afflicting more Americans, particularly since the pandemic upended life as we knew it. One science-backed way to ease anxiety, depression, anger, and fear is to meditate. We'll practice loving kindness meditation (or Metta), which produces compassion for others and ourselves. Throughout the months, we will also engage in a variety of other meditative practices so that participants can find what works well for them. Join us on the Second Tuesday every month. Register for the first session by Tuesday, November 1. Kathy Carlson is Professor Emerita of English and Lecturer in Physical Education at Franklin College in Indiana. She has taught mindfulness meditation formally at the college since 2013.

In today’s world, we are all seeking answers to the monumental challenges presenting themselves. Where do we search? Each of us tries to find the solutions in our own way. Henry David Thoreau was a naturalist and philosopher, who believed in the inherent goodness of people and nature. He found his spirituality in nature, seeking “to be always on the alert to find God in nature.” The true essence of his life was to develop his spirituality. Join Mary Anne Smrz, author of her forthcoming book, Paddlin’ with Thoreau..., for a morning of journaling and reflecting on a selection of Thoreau’s lesser known quotes from her book. Bring some of your favorite Thoreau quotes for discussion. Journals will be provided. Register by Thursday, January 26. Fee: $20.

WOMEN'S CHRISTMAS

There is a custom, rooted in Ireland, of celebrating Epiphany as Women's Christmas. Called Nollaig na mBan in Irish, Women's Christmas originated as a day when the women, who often carry the domestic responsibilities all year, took Epiphany as an occasion to celebrate together the end of the holidays, leaving hearth and home to the men for a few hours. Whether your domestic responsibilities are many or few, Women's Christmas offers an opportunity to pause and celebrate with friends. Cabins are available if you wish to stay overnight. We offer you three different opportunities to join us: January 5, 7 or 9, 2023

Doors open at 5:00 p.m. Wine and hors d'oeuvres will be served, followed by an elegant dinner. Your spirit will be nourished by a program as well. Fee: $45.00

Please register with payment by Monday, December 19, 2023
