

The Coalition's Social Media Competition Is Here! Join Our Platforms Today!

The Coalition Against Insurance Fraud is excited to announce the launch of our first-ever Social Media Competition!

Over the next several months, talented students from Wayne State University will be developing posts they believe will resonate with the 18–25-year-old audience, a critical group whose awareness and understanding can help shape the future fight against insurance fraud.

Help us make this initiative a true success by:

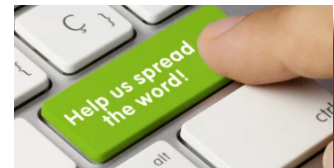

Following Us On Social Media:

Click the links below and follow the Coalition on LinkedIn, Facebook, and Instagram so you don't miss a single post.

Spreading the Word Internally:

Share this communication and our social media links with others in your organization, especially your Communications teams.

Engage & Share Often:

Like, comment, and share student content. The more we engage, the farther these messages travel!

Thank you for supporting both the students and the Coalition as we work together to raise awareness about the important issue of insurance fraud!
