Date: September 23, 2024

Time: 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) • Registration Fee: $150

Course Overview:

Motor Vehicle Searches: Constitutional Issues Impacting Law Enforcement Operations

A major recurring task in law enforcement is contact with motor vehicles. This session examines the variety of contexts that officers come into contact with motor vehicles and examines the various rules governing each of these contexts.

The session includes: ordering occupants out; reasonable suspicions based motor vehicle searches; probable causes searches of motor vehicle; search incident to arrest in a motor vehicle; consent searches; canine sniffs of motor vehicles; inventory searches of motor vehicles and community-care-taking searches of motor vehicles.

Participants will be provided with a vehicle search sheet that crystallizes and distinguishes the rules covering the various motor vehicle contacts.
