Online Training:

The Field Training Concept for Corrections

Date: September 4, 2024

Time: 1:00pm – 2:00pm (Eastern Time)

Registration Fee: $150

Course Overview:

Training and staffing issues are commonplace in law enforcement, but problems are most severe in the jails. Detention centers, jails and prisons regularly face higher officer turnover, lower hiring standards, and poor training all while trying to navigate an extremely toxic work environment. In most corrections agencies onboard and training last about a week, and then the officers are on their own. This continues the constant downward trend. Implementing an proven On-The-Job training model seems impossible, but not only is it possible, it's necessary to dramatically improve your facilities capabilities and create fundamental change. In this webinar we will discuss the importance of properly onboarding and training your new staff and ideas to overcome some of the challenges specific to corrections.

Instructor:

Steven Kellams retired in 2019 as the Administrative Captain for the Bloomington Police Department in Bloomington Indiana. Captain Kellams attended Indiana University from 1987 to 1991. In 1989, he graduated from the Indiana University Police Academy. In 1991, he was hired by the Bloomington Police Department and was assigned to night shift. After spending 10 years as a night shift patrol officer, Captain Kellams was promoted to Sergeant, and then Lieutenant. His final position with the department was as the Administrative Captain, responsible for a number of duties including internal affairs, public information, and CALEA Accreditation. During his time at the department, he served as a breath-test operator, bike patrol officer, field training officer, and senior field training officer. Captain Kellams has also served as a Patrol Supervisor, Detective Supervisor, Civil Disturbance Unit Commander, Motor Unit Supervisor, Field Training Manager, Field Training Coordinator, Special Investigation Unit Supervisor, and Public Information Officer.

In 2000, Captain Kellams was instrumental in redesigning the field training program for the Bloomington Police Department and has taught that program to hundreds of departments throughout the United States. He has also instructed on field training issues at the national level when he presented two courses at the 2002 National Association of Field Training Officers Conference. He also presented courses for NAFTO in 2008, 2010, and 2011. In 2000, he was elected state director for the Indiana Chapter of the National Association of Field Training Officers. He also served on the NAFTO National Executive Board and served as President of the board in 2009.
