

We Need Your Help!!

Friends and Neighbors...

I'm sure you have heard that our local shelter, Coachella Valley Animal Campus, located in Thousand Palms, has been under pressure for a long time from overcrowding and now, they have been the receivers of two or more animal hoarding situations that have left them in a dire situation.

The shelter and animals desperately need our help! If you have room in your home and heart to adopt or foster, please consider doing so now. There is no long-term commitment to foster and you'd be saving a life. If this is an impossible task, they are also in need of supplies.

The shelter is in serious need of blankets, towels and dog beds!

Locations where you can drop these items off:

Sincerely,
