Luther's Antinomian Disputations

"The distinction between the Law and the Gospel is a special brilliant light, which serves to the end that God's Word may be rightly divided and the Scriptures of the holy prophets and apostles may be properly explained and understood," (Formula of Concord, Solid Declaration V,1). We will look at Luther's "Antinomian Disputations" (English translation published by Lutheran Press under the title "Only the Decalogue Is Eternal" in 2008) as a help in today's struggle to preach faithfully the Word of God and rightly divide Law and Gospel without falling into the errors of antinomianism and legalism.
