

Speaking God's Truth in Love to those who have same-sex attraction."

March 2, 2019

8:30 to Noon

St. Peter Lutheran Church

202 E Schaumburg Rd. Schaumburg IL 60194

Pastor Eckstein with cover Scripture's teaching on homosexuality and how to respond to those who challenge the traditional interpretation of Scripture on this issue. In addition, Pastor Eckstein will discuss how to minister to those who have same-sex attraction.

$10 donation requested at the door.

Please make checks payable to LCMS NID

To register please contact:
Deaconess Kris Blackwell
630.234.1491
kbwrk123@gmail.com

Pastor Tom Eckstein was ordained in July of 1991 and has been serving Concordia Lutheran Church in Jamestown, ND, since June of 2005. He is the author of Bearing Their Burden: Speaking the Truth in Love to People Burdened by Homosexuality (Lulu, 2010). He also contributed an essay on the biblical teaching of homosexuality in Ethics of Sex (CPH, 2017). While serving a congregation in Bridgeton, MO (from 1999 – 2005), pastor Eckstein served as a member of the Board of Directors for “FirstLight” (a St. Louis ministry to those who struggle with same-sex attractions). He has served as a speaker at St. Louis seminary and Doxology. From 2013 – 2015 he served on the “God’s Gift of Sexuality” task force. He has served as 1st and 2nd vice president of the North Dakota District as well as their board of directors. He currently serves as pastor of Concordia Lutheran Church in Jamestown, ND.