The Rev. Dr. Gregory P. Seltz, PhD, serves as the Executive Director of the Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty, whose mission is to ignite and fuel a uniquely Lutheran response to increasing intrusions, limitations and challenges by the government in the life of the Church, while educating, encouraging and equipping LCMS members and organizations to take informed action in support of marriage, life and religious freedom. As such, Seltz serves as the leader of an organization that strives to be resource for our Churches, Universities, our Schools and Pre-schools to empower them as voices in the public square for the Gospel and for the sake of the communities which they serve as well as encouraging people of faith already serving in D.C. on behalf of God's people.

Dr. Seltz will address:

- Our place as Christians in the Public Square
- The importance of the rights to life and religious liberty
- Current threats and challenges that Christians face in government and society
- What you can do to maintain freedom, serve your neighbor, and make your voice heard.
