

Stewardship Workshop

Talking to Members About Giving - A Primer for Teaching Generosity

A stewardship workshop for pastors and leaders involved in congregational stewardship

Churches will learn how to biblically teach and ask members to give.

Presenter Rev. Mark Bussert will help pastors and lay leaders:

- Understand current trends in church giving
 - Have an effective annual stewardship emphasis
 - Talk to church members about giving (biblically!)
-

Saturday, February 10, 2018
Grace Lutheran Church
2245 Walters Avenue
Northbrook, IL 60062

8:30 a.m. Doors open for registration/refreshments
9:00 a.m. Program begins
4:00 p.m. Closing

$45/person. Lunch included

Rev. Mark Bussert is an experienced parish pastor and now director of stewardship at three congregations in the NID.

“Stewardship is a crucial component of congregational life - not only for the support of the church’s ministries, but because it is an important part of raising up effective and joyful disciples and followers of Jesus Christ.”

If you'd like to ask questions about the program, contact him at 865-567-3409 or mark.bussert@aol.com

RSVP: Rev. Mark Bussert
865-567-3409 mark.bussert@aol.com