COUNCILMEMBER LAUREN TOLMACHOFF HONORS GLENDALE PUBLIC SAFETY

Office of Vice Mayor
Lauren Tolmachoff
Cholla District

GLENDALE, AZ: Glendale Councilmember Lauren Tolmachoff is honoring the selfless public safety officials who serve and protect our community every day with a public safety appreciation event.

WHAT: On Wednesday, April 8 Councilmember Tolmachoff will provide lunch to over 300 on-duty Glendale Fire and Police Department personnel from Babbo Italian Eatery through planned Cholla District funds. Some personnel will eat or pick up their meals as a unit from the restaurant, and others will have their meals delivered by volunteers. Tolmachoff began hosting this event annually in 2023. “This is a tangible way to show my appreciation to these important individuals within our community,” said Tolmachoff.

WHEN: 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on April 8

WHERE: Babbo Italian Eatery, 20211 N. 67th Avenue, Glendale

WHY: “Glendale’s public safety employees work tirelessly to keep our city safe and provide aid in times of need,” said Tolmachoff. “They put their lives on the line for the well-being of others. These heroes have my immense gratitude.”

WHO: Councilmember Lauren Tolmachoff will be at Babbo Italian Eatery to thank all on-duty Glendale Fire and Police personnel who come in for lunch. Community partner Bell Bank is donating beverages, and volunteers from Bell Bank and Glendale Rotary Club will assist in assembling the lunch boxes and delivering meals to stations and precincts. “I am appreciative of Bell Bank, Glendale Rotary Club, and Babbo Italian Eatery for their assistance in making this a memorable and meaningful event,” said Tolmachoff.
