

2018 Binkley Alternative Gifts Fair (AGF)

Join us following worship in the Fellowship Hall. The AGF is an opportunity for you to learn, share and support through Christmas gift-giving with a social gospel emphasis. Below are some of the anticipated Fair participants.

Please bring cash or a check book as credit card shopping is rarely available.

Sanctuary Support for Rosa is an opportunity for you to support the best combination jewelry designer and papusa maker in all of the universe. Hyperbole notwithstanding, Rosa has been in sanctuary housing at the Church of Reconciliation for far too many months. She is trying to earn money for her family as she awaits news regarding her deportation status.

Club NOVA is a welcoming house and thrift shop located in Carrboro. Club Nova is designed to serve adults (18 and older) who have been diagnosed with a serious mental illness, such as schizophrenia or bipolar disorder. A member may use the resources of Club Nova whenever needed, at whatever level desired, throughout his or her lifetime. www.clubnova.org

Refugee and Binkley Family Support is a table filled with opportunities for you to purchase a gift in support of refugees in our community or possibly hire a Binkley family for work around your home. Your support will also aid a young Peruvian man who is in need of support to attend medical school. Maria Palmer will greet and inspire you at this table.

Our Children's Place of Coastal Horizons Center is a statewide program, based in the Triangle, that serves as North Carolina's leading advocate and educational resource focused on children of incarcerated parents. Our work includes: educating professionals; supporting the relationship between children and their incarcerated parents; and, identifying and promoting policies, programs, and practices which improve the outcomes for these children. The hats and other items we sell at the market were handcrafted by women at the NC Correctional Institution for Women and community members. www.ourchildrensplace.com

Church World Service works with partners to eradicate hunger and poverty and to promote peace and justice around the world. We reach out to neighbors in need near and far--not with a hand out, but a hand up. CWS is the CROP Walk crew! www.churchworldservice.org

Habitat for Humanity of Orange County changes lives by bringing together God's people and resources to help families in need build and own quality affordable homes. Purchase a Beloved Community shirt to support the Seymour House. www.orangehabitat.org

Eyes, Ears Nose and Paws (EENP) is a nonprofit organization that trains and places assistance dogs. Our programs create a healthier community by increasing independence for individuals with disabling medical conditions, improving opportunities for individual control over medical care, and encouraging therapeutic interventions that improve physical and mental health.
