The Trip to Seven Mile Creek

By Joseph Connor

The trip to Seven Mile Creek was... let's just say it was hectic. The day some of the 5th and 6th graders went to Seven Mile Creek, it was raining. Mrs. Wavrin and her son, Thomas, were in charge of it. It was challenging and fun at the same time. Ten people went in, but only nine came out. Poor Thomas went in with the group and never came out with us. Thank you Mrs. Wavrin for putting this awesome trip together.

PE Biking Unit for grades 3-6 preparing for Annual Marathon which was held on Sunday, October 6th

FIELD TRIPS - Target Field and Holy Field Trip

Holy Field Trip

By Natalie Salfer

It was a dark and stormy day the 4th and 5th graders went on the Holy Field Trip. On the way there some 5th graders and I played mad libs. When we got there we did the whole rosary. Then we ate with some sisters and got to see their house. Then we met the bishop. Last we went to a really fun park.

Target Field

By Ivy McHugh

This field trip was amazing, a lot more fun than I expected. We technically saw almost all behind of what we usually see at Target Field. We saw the Visitor's locker room and dugout. We even saw Joe Mauer's private suite! Over all that was a five star trip!

Upcoming field trip to MN Arboretum-Friday November 22nd
