Facilitator

Mauricio Chenlo

is the minister for Church Planting at Mennonite Mission

Network/MCUSA. He has years of experience of domestic and international conflict management, leadership development, mediation, new startups, coaching church planters, developing curriculum for adult education and conflict intervention.

He holds a degree in Bible and Social Ethics and graduated from AMBS with a master's degree in Peacemaking. In his current role with MMN, Mauricio developed innovative and creative resources for missionary leaders in both English and Spanish. Among the latest accomplishments, he created the Sent Network, Sent Conference and Pacificadores/Peacemakers.

Mauricio enjoys the outdoors, hiking, golfing, kayaking and soccer. He resides in Raleigh, North Carolina with his wife, Sara Padilla. They are parents of 3 wonderful and productive adult children: Cristina, Andres and Ariana.

Workshop Theme

Based on the story of Lydia from Acts 16:11-15, this interactive workshop will provide simple, replicable examples of Jesus' approach to mission. The workshop will include visual examples and offer a place for participants to create and/or work on a missional idea that they would use in their context.

Come with a missional idea or brainstorm one during the workshop. The day will provide you with ample time to work and receive feedback on your idea.
