TRUSTING IN GOD'S MERCY

Kim thought that God couldn't possibly forgive what happened on that beautiful, tragic September day. The guilt she felt was overwhelming. Yet God's mercy is immeasurable when we choose to be forgiven. "My life was changed by God's mercy."

"Step by step God has lead me from paralyzed to Poland, from disabled to disciple, from mercy to ministry."

Join us to hear Kim Kendall share her compelling story of how God not only saved her from a life filled with regret, but healed her completely from the effects of guilt.
