

*Classroom Creations to be Auctioned
at the Fall Festival*

Stop by the Auction Tables inside the Gym to Bid on these one-of-a-kind items!!!
Friday, October 26th

Item 101: "Hey Diddle Diddle" Artists: Ms. Wheatley's students with help from Ms. Suzanne Farman Maddux

Students used their thumbprints to make a Hey Diddle Diddle nursery rhyme themed pottery plate. An adorable platter to use all year long.

Item 102: "Old MacDonald" Artists: Ms. Laemmle's JK class with help from Ms. Suzanne Farman Maddux

Ms. Laemmle's JK class designed Old MacDonald's farm with thumbprints, fit for any home.

Item 103: "How the Grinch Stole the Cookies" Artists: Ms. Mills' class with help from Ms. Diane Gioia and Ms. Danielle Flener.

Cookie jar decorated with thumbprints depicting a Dr. Seuss classic!

Item 104: "Oh the Places You'll Go" Artists: Ms. Wibbles' class with help from Ms. Diane Gioia and Ms. Danielle Flener. Cookie jar with a Seussian inspired thumbprint design.

Item 105: "One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Cookie!" Artists: Ms. Gohmann's class with help from Ms. Alicia Brown and Ms. Cynthia Burgess Yates.

Take home this adorable cookie jar adorned with thumbprint Seuss inspired fish.

Item 106: "Horton Hears a Who's Cookie!" Artists: Ms. Barnhill's class with help from Ms. Alicia Brown and Ms. Cynthia Burgess Yates.

This adorable cookie jar is adorned with thumbprints depicting a Dr. Seuss favorite.

Item 107: "Home is Where the Heart Is" Artists: All First Grade Students with assistance from Ms. Katy Wane

A large wooden pallet with each first graders fingerprints coming together to form the shape of our great state of Kentucky. Each 1st grader is represented with 3-5 finger prints in this colorful piece.

Item 108: “2H First Communion Plate” Artists: Ms. Hagan’s students with assistance from Ms. Carol Coke.

Second grade is a special year in your child’s life as they make their First Communion. You’ll remember it always with this memento.

Item 109: “2L First Communion Plate” Artists: Ms. Lim’s students with assistance from Ms. Tiffany Kalenkosky.

Second grade is a special year in your child’s life as they make their First Communion. You’ll remember it always with this memento.

Item 110: “2J First Communion Plate” Artists: Ms. Hawkins’s students with assistance from Ms. Katie Harris.

Second grade is a special year in your child’s life as they make their First Communion. You’ll remember it always with this memento.

Item 111: “Thunder” Artists: All Third Grade Students with assistance from Ms. Teal Graeter.

The 3rd grade Classroom Creation is a Thunder Over Louisville Derby Festival themed pottery platter adorned with fingerprint fireworks.

Item 112: “Home Sweet Louisville” Artists: All Fourth Grade Students with assistance from Ms. Jamie Gatti.

This unique piece is a painted canvas depicting the Louisville skyline decorated with student fingerprints.

Item 113: “Planting Goodness” Artists: All Fifth Grade with assistance from Ms. Erin Reed.

This beautiful, custom succulent planter is adorned with each student’s signature burned into the planter.

Item 114: “Mary Poppins Platter” Artists: All 6th grade students with assistance from Ms. Nikki Boehm

Remember this year’s 6th grade play with this adorably decorated Mary Poppins themed pottery platter decorated with each 6th graders fingerprint.

Item 115: “One-of-a-Kind Mustang Door Hanger” Artists: All 7th grade students with help from Ms. Erin Coogan.

This one-of-a-kind St. Margaret Mary Mustang door hanger is hand signed by each child in the 7th grade.

Item 116: “One-of-a-Kind Bourbon Barrel” Artists: All 8th grade students with help from Ms. Erin Coogan. The lid is embossed with the St. Margaret Mary name, Mustang and dated 2017-2018. It is hand signed by each child in the 8th grade.

Questions? Contact Classroom Creation Co-chairs Katy Wane (katy.wane@gmail.com) or Erin Coogan (emc988@gmail.com).