

MEET NATIONAL LEADERS IN BUSINESS AND LAW

CONVERSATIONS WITH BOB MUNDHEIM

In this popular annual series, Professor Bob Mundheim moderates informal conversations with national leaders in business and law, relating their experiences in and perspectives about corporate governance, markets, ethics, and career development. This series is free and open to members of the UA community, and will be of particular interest to law and business students.

NOON–1:15 P.M., College of Law, Room 237 (1201 E. Speedway Blvd.). Lunch provided. Seating is limited.

FEBRUARY 19, 2018

SPECIAL PANEL DISCUSSION WITH GOGO, INC. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

RON LEMAY

Ron LeMay is chairman of the Board of Directors of Gogo, Inc. He serves as managing director for Open Air Equity Partners. Its portfolio companies include Gogo Inflight, Main Street Data, and Hyla mobile. LeMay has founded or cofounded eight companies in the last 10 years. Mr. LeMay was formerly president/COO of Sprint Corporation for almost 20 years and CEO of Sprint PCS. Mr. LeMay is a lawyer who practiced for 10 years in private practice and as corporate counsel.

OAKLEIGH THORNE

Oakleigh Thorne founded, and serves as CEO of, Thorndale Farm, Inc., which oversees the Thorne family investment portfolio, including investments in Gogo, Inc. and Helix Education Inc., as well as other investments. He is a member of the Board of Directors of Gogo, Inc.

Prior to founding Thorndale Farm in 1996, he served as CEO of Commerce Clearing House, Inc. Thorne led the sale of CCH for $1.9 billion to Wolters Kluwer in 1996. Thorne also served as Chairman and CEO of eCollege.com (2000–07).

MICHELE COLEMAN MAYES

A member of the Board of Directors of Gogo, Inc., Michele Coleman Mayes is vice president, general counsel, and secretary for the New York Public Library. Previously, she served as executive vice president and general counsel for Allstate Insurance Company, as a senior vice president and general counsel of Pitney Bowes Inc. (2003–07), and in several legal capacities at Colgate-Palmolive (1992–2003). She currently chairs the American Bar Association's Commission on Women in the Profession.

MARCH 19, 2018

JACK JACOBS

Jack Jacobs has more than 45 years of legal experience, most notably serving on the Delaware Supreme Court from 2003–14, and as Vice Chancellor of the Delaware Court of Chancery since 1985. Before his appointment as Vice Chancellor, he practiced corporate and business litigation in Wilmington since 1968. Former Justice Jacobs is currently an Adjunct Professor of Law at the Law Schools of New York University, Columbia University, Vanderbilt University, and the University of Pennsylvania. His practice includes advising companies and boards of directors on Delaware law issues, including fiduciary duties and with respect to mergers and acquisitions.

MARCH 26, 2018

SIMON M. LORNE

Simon Lorne serves as the vice chairman and chief legal officer at Millennium Management, LLC, overseeing its compliance, legal, regulatory, and internal audit functions. Previously, Mr. Lorne served as a partner at Munger, Tolles & Olson. In 1996, he became a managing director at Salomon

Brothers, where he served as global head of Internal Audit. From 1993 to 1996, Mr. Lorne was the general counsel at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. He is an independent director of Teledyne Technologies Inc., and co-chairs the Stanford Directors' College.

APRIL 2, 2018

EMILY GLAZER

Emily Glazer is a banking reporter for The Wall Street Journal focusing on two of the largest U.S. banks: J.P. Morgan Chase and Wells Fargo. She covers all aspects of banking, from the sales practices problems within Wells Fargo's retail bank to terrorist financing. This spring, Ms. Glazer was named a Rising Star by the News Media Alliance and received the New York Press Club's award for consumer reporting. Over the past nine years reporting for The Wall Street Journal or sister publications, Ms. Glazer has covered global bankruptcy and restructuring, consumer products companies like Procter & Gamble, personal finance and start-ups.

APRIL 9, 2018

JAMES H. CHEEK, III

James H. Cheek, III is a senior member of the law firm of Bass, Berry & Sims PLC in Nashville, Tennessee. He graduated from Duke University and Vanderbilt Law School and received an LL.M. degree from Harvard University. Mr. Cheek has served as chair of the ABA Section of Business Law and as chair of the National Task Force on Corporate Responsibility. He also has served as chair of the New York Stock Exchange Legal Advisory Committee and the Legal Advisory Board to the National Association of Securities Dealers. Additionally, he has served for a number of years as a member of the ABA Corporate Laws Committee which reviews and revises the Model Business Corporation Act. He is a past chair of the Securities Regulation Institute (San Diego) and was Professor of the Practice of Law at Vanderbilt Law School 2012–17.

APRIL 16, 2018

JOHN J. CANNON III

John Cannon is a senior member of the Executive Compensation & Employee Benefits Group and co-chair of Shearman & Sterling's Corporate Governance Advisory Group. In his practice, he focuses on all aspects of compensation and benefits, including ERISA and corporate, securities, bankruptcy, employment, and tax laws. He has extensive experience in executive compensation and corporate governance matters, Dodd-Frank and Sarbanes-Oxley, and the compensation issues raised in the mergers and acquisitions context. Mr. Cannon joined Shearman & Sterling in 1985 and became a partner in 1994.

MODERATOR

ROBERT MUNDHEIM

Robert (Bob) Mundheim is Professor of Corporate Law & Finance at the James E. Rogers College of Law. He previously served as Dean and University Professor of Law and Finance at the University of Pennsylvania Law School; General Counsel at the U.S. Treasury Department; Special Counsel to the Securities and Exchange Commission; and Executive Vice President and General Counsel for Salomon Inc. He is a founding Trustee of the American College of Governance Counsel and is a Director of Gogo, Inc. Professor Mundheim chaired the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility, and served on the Council of the American Law Institute for nearly 30 years. He is Of Counsel to the firm of Shearman & Sterling LLP in New York.

